ARCHIPRIX PORTUGAL 2015

THE ARCHIPRIX PORTUGAL AWARD

The Archiprix Portugal Prize was instituted in 2012, by the Serra Henriques Foundation (Lisbon) and the Archiprix Foundation (Rotterdam), involving the Portuguese Association of Architects and the Portuguese architecture schools.

Archiprix is internationally referenced as one of the most prestigious academic architecture awards, annually distinguishing the best graduation projects presented in the fields of Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Urbanism.

The Archiprix Prize is characterized by the diversity of its projects. Contrasting the generality of architectural contests, Archiprix does not impose, a priori, a specific problematic. On the contrary, Archiprix promotes intellectual and academic diversity. For this reason, the projects' themes, their presentation and their level of detail vary considerably from one another. The diversity and the high quality of the Archiprix projects represent, as a whole, an important contribution to the emerging national architecture's projection.

In this sense, Archiprix establishes agreements with relevant entities regarding the disclosure of new talents in the field of architecture, giving them international visibility and privileged public exposure.

The Archiprix organization is composed of an Executive Committee and an Advisory Council, which is a non-executive operational and scientific counselling organ regarding the Jury's creation and concerning the participation in academic meetings. The Prize's winners inherently integrate this Council.

Archiprix Portugal is part of the International Network Archiprix, consisting of the complementary initiatives Archiprix Netherlands, Archiprix Chile, Central Europe (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Austria, Hungary, Croatia), Turkey, Italy and Russia. Also part of the global network is the Archiprix International award.
